

ARTWEEK

Kate Davis

MOTHERS I'D LIKE TO FIND FUNNY

Sunday is Mother's Day, and you can show mom just how much she means to you by taking her to the 8:30pm performance by Kate Davis, a.k.a. the Funny Mommy, who headlines at Yuk Yuk's, 224 Richmond W., May 8-11. The beauty of this plan is that it only costs $10 on Sunday, compared to $17 on Friday and Saturday, when shows are at 8pm and 10pm. (416-967-6425.)

Davis, a native of Toronto, is one of the few comedian-mothers working in Canada. To wit: "We went to the Science Centre and some guy was talking about minerals, and he asked the kids what salt was for.... My kids screamed out "Tequila." When her son tries to tell her that dick is the French word for penis, she says correctively: "The French word for penis is Chrétien." If even $10 is over your gift limit, just hand mom the TV listings: she can catch Davis' schtick on Comedy Now!, Saturday on CTV or Sunday on The Comedy Network at 10pm both nights. GORD McLAUGHLIN